

TRUMANSBURG CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Instructional Guidance for Families

As we move forward with our reopening plan, we continue to discuss the differences between the Emergency Instruction and expectations we were giving in the Spring of 2020 versus the Plan for Blended and Remote Learning and the expectation in the Fall.

Our PreK-6 Students will return to a normal 5 days a week and instructional expectations will be the same as always.

Emergency Remote Learning Spring 2020	Blended Learning Fall 2020 2 days in School 3 days Home	Remote Learning Fall 2020 100% at Home
Some live classes, mostly video and resources	Teacher Led Direct Instruction Guided Practice & Study	Live Class Direct Instruction Recorded Classes
Teacher Office Hours Individually scheduled	3 Virtual days of Office Hours 2 in Person Days with Teacher	Daily Office Hours - scheduled 2 Social Meets a Week
Flexible Daily/Weekly Requirements	Scheduled and planned school days 3 day home work requirement	Prioritized work scheduled for the week with guided practice
Participation Monitored	Attendance Taken Daily
Focused on Review, then moved to some new learning by prioritizing the curriculum	Focus on Grade Level/Course Standards using District Learning Targets and Outcomes.
No Formal Assessments No State Mandated Testing	All Assessments given, including State Mandated tests (3-8 and Regents Exams) and iReady Diagnostics (K-8)
Distance Learning Grading Rubric designed for flexible grading	Grades given based on Mastery of the Content and participation
Some paper materials but mostly digital	Mostly Digital materials at home with the exception of Books, Writing materials, musical instruments, and Grades K-3
Variety of Online Platforms	New BrightSpace Portal for all Students, Parents, and Teachers
Some Limited access to student services	Regularly scheduled student services and counseling support A prepared social emotional/mental health plan and screener

<sup>1</sup> *This plan is subject to change at any time 8/12/20